Bank of Oak Ridge Celebrates Thirteen Years and Offers Free Document Shredding

Greensboro, North Carolina, April 8, 2013 – Bank of Oak Ridge (Nasdaq:BKOR) is holding a free shred day in conjunction with its 13-year anniversary celebration. The event will be held on Saturday, April 13, 2013, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm at the Lake Jeanette office in Greensboro, located at 400 Pisgah Church Road. The event is open to the entire community. Individuals are invited to bring documents for shredding and are welcome to enjoy free iced tea and lemonade from the Alight Foundation, as well as free food, giveaways and shredding.

“The purpose of our free shredding and anniversary event is to celebrate how far we’ve come in thirteen years, while also demonstrating our continued commitment to fighting the devastating effects of identity theft.” said Ron Black, President and CEO of Bank of Oak Ridge. “We want to help those in our community take precautions to protect their good names. Shredding sensitive documents is one small but powerful step.”

Despite popular belief, the majority of identity theft involves non-electronic documents and offline transactions. Shredding properly destroys confidential materials and helps the environment by recycling paper.

Shred Depot, a certified information destruction company, will shred company and personal documents for free, including any materials containing sensitive, private or confidential information, such as pre-approved credit offers, credit applications, past bank statements and expired credit cards.
