2. PARTICIPATION CONSTITUTES ACCEPTANCE OF RULES AND DECISIONS, CONSENT TO USE AND RELEASE OF CLAIMS. By entering this contest, each participant warrants that he or she has read and agrees to abide by all contest rules and that he or she is not prohibited from participating in the contest. Participation in this contest constitutes participant's full and unconditional acceptance of these Official Rules and the decisions of Bank of Oak Ridge, the American Heart Association, and their parents, affiliates, employees and agents, which are final, binding and non-negotiable in all respects. Each participant agrees to release, discharge, indemnify and hold harmless Bank of Oak Ridge, the American Heart Association and their parents, affiliates, shareholders, employees, officers, directors, agents, representatives, advertising and promotion agencies and prize suppliers from any liability arising from or related to the contest, including without limitation, (a) unauthorized human intervention in the contest; (b) technical errors related to computers, servers, providers, or telephone or network lines; copyright printing errors; (d) lost, late, postage-due, misdirected, or undeliverable mail; (e) personal injury, death, and property damage; and (f) claims based on publicity rights, defamation, or invasion of privacy. Further, participants fully and unconditionally release all claims for consideration, copyright infringement and all other claims of any nature relating to the use of their entry, name or likeness.

3. Eligibility: This contest is open to adults 18 and older who are U.S. residents. Proof of age and identity must be furnished upon request. Employees, agents, independent dealers and affiliates of Bank of Oak Ridge, the American Heart Association and their agents, affiliates and immediate family members of all such persons, are not eligible to participate in this contest. Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association reserve the right, at its sole discretion, to cancel, terminate, suspend, or amend this contest at any time for any reason. Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association further reserve the right to amend these contest rules at any time without prior notice, at its sole discretion. Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association reserve the right to disqualify any participant for any reason, including, but not limited to, violation of these Official Rules, copyright infringement or infringement of the rights of a third-party.

4. TO ENTER: This contest submission period will run on or about April 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016 ("Contest Period"). To enter this contest, participants are asked to: (i) navigate to www.BankofOakRidge.com/HealthyHeartChallenge (the "Website"); (ii) follow instructions to submit an entry form to the contest including up to a one thousand (1,000) word written entry detailing what lifestyle change you, or someone you know, has made to improve heart health. Eligible entries must be submitted during the Contest Period, and writing entries submitted must be in the English language. Please only one entry per person and e-mail address. By submitting an entry, participants agree to abide by these Official Rules. Persons submitting entries under false pretenses, manipulating the contest voting, or in any other way tampering with this contest will be disqualified. Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association are not responsible for telecommunications, network, electronic, technical or computer failures of any kind. Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association are not responsible for any lost or misdirected mail sent by participant to Bank of Oak Ridge or the American Heart Association.

Participant's submission signifies agreement by participant to grant Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, transferable, perpetual license to publicly display participant's entry. Participant further certifies that the entry submitted does not contain any trademarks, logos, copyrighted material, or other intellectual property belonging to any third party. Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association reserve the right to remove from the contest website and disqualify any entry which Bank of Oak Ridge or the American Heart Association, in their sole discretion, determines to be offensive, illegal, in violation of any privacy or other third party rights, or for any other reason.

Participant warrants and represents that he/she is the original author of the material submitted and that the written entry does not incorporate material owned by any other person. By entering, participant also agrees that Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association may publish participant's name and entry on the Bank of Oak Ridge or American Heart Association website, or in such other media or formats as Bank of Oak Ridge or the American Heart Association may elect without any compensation.

5. PRIZES: There will be a judging period beginning on or about October 1, 2016 and running through October 10, 2016. During this time a panel from Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association will select challenge finalists. The number of finalists will depend on the number of entries received. The criteria that Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association will use to determine the finalists from among the eligible entries will include, but is not limited to the originality, creativity and adherence to contest themes and official rules. There will be three (3) Healthy Heart Challenge winners selected by Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association in its sole discretion from the finalists on or about October 10, 2016. The Healthy Heart Challenge winner will receive prizes packages to be determined from one of the event sponsors.

The odds of winning will depend on the number of entries received. For example, if Bank of Oak Ridge receives 1,000 eligible entries, your chances of winning will be 3 in 1,000.

The winner is responsible for taxes and any and all other costs and expenses not listed above. All decisions of Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association in this contest are final, binding and non-negotiable. No prize may be transferred or substituted.

6. IDENTIFICATION OF POTENTIAL WINNER. Bank of Oak Ridge or the American Heart Association will notify the potential winners by telephone and/or email address with the information on file for the winner on or about the week of October 1, 2016. If unable to make contact with the winners within ten (10) days after the first attempt to notify the winners, or if the winners fail to claim the prize in accordance with these Official Rules, the winners forfeit the prize. To accept and receive the prize, the winners must sign and return to Bank of Oak Ridge or the American Heart Association a copy of these Official Rules, a form provided by Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association releasing Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association from all claims, and any other documentation deemed necessary in Bank of Oak Ridge and the American Heart Association's sole discretion no later than October 20, 2016.

The winner's name may also be posted at www.BankofOakRidge.com, www.heart.org and in other printed and non-printed media.
