Bank of Oak Ridge to Announce Local Healthy Heart Challenge Winners

Interviews Available

WHAT: In partnership with the American Heart Association's Guilford Heart Ball, Bank of Oak Ridge will be announcing the three winners of the Healthy Heart Challenge, recognizing local men and women in Greater Guilford County who have made lifestyle changes to prevent heart disease and stroke. Heart disease is the No.1 killer of both men and women in the U.S. and stroke is the fourth leading cause of death and a leading cause of permanent disability. However, 80% of heart disease and stroke incidents are preventable through heart-healthy lifestyle changes. "We are proud to recognize these three individuals who have made major changes in their lifestyles to prevent heart disease. Their stories are truly inspirational," shares Ron Black, President and CEO of Bank of Oak Ridge. "The partnership with the Guilford Heart Ball has allowed us to take our practice of 'Banking As It Should Be' and extend it to 'Life As It Should Be,' encouraging everyone in our community to put their health first and make changes today for healthier, happier and longer lives." At the event, the Bank of Oak Ridge Healthy Heart Challenge winners will be announced and they will share their inspiring stories. The American Heart Association will also be toasting the Guilford Heart Ball leaders and supporters. Whole Foods will be on-site with a heart-healthy cooking demo and will provide delicious hors d'oeuvres for the evening. Winners of the second annual Healthy Heart Challenge will receive prizes generously donated by VF Jeanswear, Off 'N Running and Aqua Salon & Spa and will be the "2014-2015 Healthy Heart Challenge Winners" or "Faces of Heart Health" in Greater Guilford County.
