Bank of Oak Ridge Welcomes
Steve Guy As Business Relationship Manager

Oak Ridge, NC, October 26, 2015 – Bank of Oak Ridge (OTCQB: BKOR), is pleased to announce that Steve Guy has joined the bank as Business Relationship Manager.

Enjoying a decades-long banking career, Guy’s expertise spans nearly every aspect of the industry – from private banking to business development. The one constant has been an insistence on delivering customized service for every client. That personal approach, which builds connections and helps dreams come true, is a perfect fit with Bank of Oak Ridge. “With his proven track-record, excellent client relationships and exemplary lending practices, Steve brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our bank, said Jeff Finberg, Senior Vice President and Commercial Banking Manager for Bank of Oak Ridge.

Previously, Guy served as City Executive for First Bank in Asheboro and Commercial Relationship Manager for High Point Bank. Earlier in his career, he was Commercial Relationship Manager with SunTrust Bank (formerly Central Carolina Bank) and City Executive for First National Bank, both in Asheboro. Prior to that, Guy started his expansive career in banking with Wachovia Bank, holding positions including Sales Finance Credit Manager, Office Manager and Private Banker, serving both personal and business banking clients in Greensboro, Asheboro, Burlington and Reidsville.

Guy is a Charlotte native and graduate of Wingate University. Among his vast community service activities through the years, he serves as president of the Randolph County Family Crisis Center board, has spent six years as president of the Randolph County Habitat of Humanity board, and coaches youth sports through the YMCA, the City of Asheboro and the Challenge Soccer Program.

“Steve’s enduring commitment to serving the community, extensive banking experience and commercial lending acumen truly enhance our ability to deliver Banking As It Should Be to our clients”, added Finberg.

In addition to serving his clients and the community, Guy relishes spending time with his wife Lisa and two sons, Joseph and Thomas. He can be found watching sports, playing golf and visiting the beach. “The fact that Bank of Oak Ridge has been voted the “Best Bank in the Triad” for four consecutive years is a story I can’t wait to share with clients”, raves Guy.
